NATIONAL DEFENSE POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE (NDPAC) ANNOUNCEMENT

The NDPAC is extremely proud to announce that 3 of its endorsees for the 2016 election cycle were elected to the United States House of Representatives. Brigadier General Don Bacon, USAF (ret) will represent Nebraska's 2d Congressional District, Lieutenant General Jack Bergman, USMC (ret) will represent Michigan's 1st Congressional District, and Staff Sergeant Brian Mast USA (ret), will be the representative from Florida's 18th Congressional District.

Rear Admiral James Carey, USN (ret), the NDPAC National Chairman, noted that the "NDPAC is extremely pleased that there will now be 3 new United States Congressmen who are military veterans and who can help bring back the strong support needed to rebuild the United States Armed Forces and to fix the seriously troubled Veterans Administration. All three are highly accomplished, strongly motivated veterans, whose belief in a strong national defense and fiscal conservatism are sorely needed and will be greatly valued. We wish them the best of luck during their service in Congress, and stand ready to aid them in any way we can."

ABOUT THE NATIONAL DEFENSE POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

NDPAC's mission is to support the national interests of the United States by maintaining a strong American national security establishment as a matter of public policy through a non-partisan open political action committee. To achieve that goal, NDPAC supports military veterans pursuing election or re-election to legislative state-wide and national political office. Candidates are vetted, in writing, on their clear intentions to actively support a strong national security prior to receiving NDPAC endorsement. NDPAC has been active for more than twenty years and has a strong record of supporting winning candidates for elected office. Contributions are welcome from all.
